The entertainment committee of the Commercial club announces a bridge party at the club tomorrow night.
These parties are proving delightful events to break the monotony of the winter social season.

Don't forget the social to be given

West side at Mackel's opera house, Friday night, Dec. 10.

The county commissioners adjourned yesterday afternoon subject to the call of the chairman. The matter of what should be done with the flood waters of Bridge street, has been held over until the next meeting of the commissioners.

Thos. J. Raywood of this city held the lucky number for a $200 watch and chain raffled by Abe and John Hixenbaugh at Raton Saturday. The watch is a beauty, being designed for a member of the Elks' lodge and on the chain is a beautiful Elks' charm in the shape of a double Elks' tooth. Mr.
Raywood was being congratulated by his many friends today on his success in winning such a beautiful prize.

Five "tourists", probably on their way to a warmer climate, fell in with the officers of the law last night and were escorted to the city jail. On appearing before Judge Murray this morning they gave the following names: Morris Martinez, Vicente Armijo, Cecilio Cruz, Chris Martin and George Clancy. Each was given eight days on the street in default of the necessary wherewithal to pay the fine and costs. There are ten employees in the city chain gang at the present time, and all are earning their "three squares" a day under the direct supervision of Special Officer Jess Hunzaker.

Something should be done to put a stop to "kicks" breaking windows in the vacant houses about the city and especially in those located near the local shops. It seems that some of the younger element about the city have had no better training than to be allowed to run the streets until they become a public nuisance. It seems a shame that a property owner may not own a piece of property and keep it in good shape without standing guard over it with a Winchester. These matters should be reported to the chil-
